

INDIAN GEOPHYSICAL UNION

CSIR-NGRI Campus, Uppal Road, Hyderabad – 500 007

Dear Dr. Ashutosh Pandey

You are aware that the Indian Geophysical Union (IGU), a premier scientific society of Earth System Scientists, honours both senior and young scientists with National Awards/Prizes/Medals during its Annual Convention. The 61st Annual convention of IGU will take place at BHU, Varanasi, during December 3-5, 2024.

I am happy to inform you that you have been selected by the Jury for the Prestigious IGU-Dr. J.G. Negi Young Scientist Award for the year 2024 for your scientific contribution in the field of earth sciences. You will be presented the Award with a shawl and citation at the annual convention.

The Dr. J.G. Negi Young Scientist Award was instituted in 2018 by IGU from an Endowment Grant offered by the Family & Students of Late Dr. J.G. Negi, Former Director Grade Scientist at CSIR-NGRI, and is given to a Geophysicist/Geologist below the age of 35 years for his/her outstanding contribution in the field of Earth Sciences.

We request that you send your acceptance along with a half-page biography to prepare your citation at our end as soon as possible. Your lecture will be arranged later at one of the IGU student chapters.

Hearty Congratulations!

With Regards

Yours sincerely,

Abhey Ram Bansal
